REPORT FROM
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Kenneth Kato, Executive Officer, reported staff participated in the Great California ShakeOut on October 15, 2020 and staff also participates in emergency drills conducted by the interim school site Cubberly K-8. Mr. Kato and some of the managers attended the Personnel Commissions Association of Southern California (PCASC) virtual legal updates seminar with attorney Kristine Kwong that covered information regarding new laws and COVID-related issues.

Maria Braunstein, Personnel Analyst, reported she attended a Zoom videoconference meeting with the Long Beach School for Adults Building Maintenance Custodial Services class. Ms. Braunstein will meet with the class again next week to answer additional questions and connect the students with Personnel Commission staff members who, will serve as liaisons to assist students during the recruitment process. Terence Ulaszewski, Commissioner, recommended the students be reminded to disclose any relevant records during the application process. Ms. Braunstein thanked Mr. Ulaszewski and stated she will emphasize the importance of fully disclosing information to the students.

Dale Culton, Certification Services Manager, reported Operations management requested additional substitute Custodians, and that a recruitment for substitutes is now open. Mr. Culton mentioned staff is working with sites to verify current vacancies they plan to fill.
