REPORT FROM
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Maria Lynn Braunstein, Personnel Analyst reported that the Recruitment and Testing Unit is working diligently to move forward with exams, while creating new eligibility lists and bulletins. Child Care Worker eligibility lists will have new recruitment number sequences, due to the new site based hiring system coordinated with Cindy Young, Director of Child Development Centers. Recruitment and Testing participated in a virtual job fair hosted by Los Angeles Unified School District. Staff had the ability to chat with job seekers in public and private virtual chat rooms. Following the job fair, our Recruitment and Testing technicians noticed an increase in applications for our more difficult recruitments.

Kenneth Kato, Executive Officer mentioned and recognized to Gregory Robinson, Associate Personnel Analyst who was a presenter at the Personnel Testing Council Association meeting regarding our online examinations and interview processes. He spoke about the different online platforms that our department uses.

Jesus Rios Jr., Employment Services Supervisor reported that our fingerprint services provider, Biometrics, has provided Personnel Commission with a social distancing procedure. Mr. Rios Jr., wanted to thank Matt Woods, Executive Director, Information and Technology Services for their help with the setup. The new social distancing fingerprinting procedure will only need to capture three (3) individual prints unlike the previous procedure which captured fourteen (14) individual prints. This reduces the fingerprinting time from upwards of fifteen (15) to thirty (30) minutes to about three (3) minutes per transaction. The new process includes a website where individuals can book their appointments and provide their information. This eliminates the handling of paperwork, which limits exposure to COVID-19 to our Technicians and fingerprint applicants.
