REPORT FROM
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Kenneth Kato, Executive Officer, reported beginning in October 2021, the Personnel Commission will begin to meet in person for meetings. Mr. Kato shared that the Commission meetings will continue to broadcast from the Office of Marketing and Multimedia Services until the end of September. Mr. Kato informed the Commission that the District COVID-19 protocols for mask wearing have changed and depends if the employee is vaccinated. Mr. Kato shared the summer high school intern has been selected to work at the Personnel Commission to learn the different aspects of the office.

Judith Alonso, Personnel Analyst, reported that staff continue to reach out to candidates on various platforms. Ms. Alonso shared that the Commission joined the Los Angeles Unified School District's virtual job fair on June 17 and a job fair webinar with Pacific Gateway Workforce Innovation Network on June 21. Ms. Alonso mentioned that a report generated from the LAUSD job fair showed the virtual booth received 180 participants. Ms. Alonso reported there are 42 recruitments in various stages of the examination process. Ms. Alonso also mentioned there were 56 eligibility lists produced in the last quarter. Ms. Alonso thanked the staff for their continued teamwork.

Jesus Rios Jr., Employment Services Supervisor, informed the Commissioners that the first week of summer school is almost complete. Mr. Rios thanked the coordinators from the different sites to make placements for the summer employees. Mr. Rios gave recognition to Susan Brister, Human Resources Technician, for all her work to get the 600 employee assignments online. Mr. Rios recognized Anne Follett, Human Resources Technician, who has been working on a project with Equity, Access, College and Career Readiness (EACCR) office. Ms. Follett has been assisting Christopher Borunda, Administrator, K-16 Collaborations and District Programs, with the employment processing of College Student Aides, Student Tutors, and the summer intern program. Mr. Rios informed the Commissioners that staff continues to send out certification lists, as well as the processing and fingerprinting new employees for the upcoming school year.

Dale Culton, Certification Services Manager, reported in the fall, three (3) Campus Security Officers that were on the re-employment list have accepted a new placement and will go from 75% FTE to 100% FTE.

Susan Leaming, Personnel Analyst, shared she has been working on a few classification items and will be on the next agenda.
